We picked these up from the beach, & took pictures for Kawerak Inc., Alaska Sea Grant & NOAA

- FOREIGN TRASH ASHORE. SEE IT, REPORT IT

Since late July, trash with Russian and Korean writing has been washing up on shore in the Bering Strait and it is traveling with the wind and currents. Coastal communities should remain watchful and report any unusual debris that washes up on our beaches.

PLEASE REPORT MARINE DEBRIS

If you see unusual debris in the Bering Strait region, report it to incident.debris@noaa.gov or contact:

- Austin Ahmasuk (Kawerak – Nome) (907) 434-0962
- Gay Sheffield (Alaska Sea Grant – Nome): (907) 434-1144
- NOAA Marine Debris Program (Seattle): (206) 526-4666
